Defendant.)

The Court has received the Revised Presentence Investigation Report and Addendum ("PSR"), and the parties' objections (Filing Nos. 80 and 81¹). See Amended Order on Sentencing Schedule, ¶ 6. The Court advises the parties that these Tentative Findings are issued with the understanding that, pursuant to United States v. Booker, 543 U.S. 220 (2005), the sentencing guidelines are advisory.

Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The Defendant's Amended Objections to Revised Presentence Investigation Report (Filing No. 80) and the government's Objection to Revised Presentence Investigation Report and Addendum and Plaintiff's Statement will be heard at the sentencing hearing, and the Court intends to adopt the parties' plea agreement;
2. The Court intends to adopt the PSR in all other respects;
3. If any party wishes to challenge these tentative findings, the party shall immediately file in the court file and serve upon opposing counsel and the Court a motion challenging these tentative findings, supported by (a) such evidentiary materials as are required (giving due regard to the requirements of the local rules of practice respecting the submission of evidentiary materials), (b) a brief as to the law, and (c) if an evidentiary hearing is requested, a statement describing why an evidentiary hearing is necessary and an estimated length of time for the hearing;

¹The deadline to file objections to the PSR was October 20, 2016. The government filed its objection on October 27, 2016, but did not move to file objections out of time. The Court will accept Filing No. 81.

4. Absent submission of the information required by paragraph 3 of this Order, these amended tentative findings are final; and

5. Unless otherwise ordered, any motion challenging these tentative findings shall be resolved at sentencing.

DATED this 8th day of November, 2016.
